KITSUMGALLUM CEMETERY (The original Terrace Pioneer Graveyard)

Recorded by the Kitsumgallum Cemetery Volunteers and transcribed by British Columbia Genealogical Society.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Kitsumgallum Cemetery recorders in 1993 were as follows: Sally Smaha, Floyd Frank, Aileen Frank, Thelma Lindstrom, Yvonne Moen and translator, Bill Sturby. Friends of the cemetery volunteers under the leadership of Yvonne Moen were Norma Morrison, Bill Little, Bud Kirkaldy, Paulette McCulloch, Bev Bujtas, Julia Little, Irene Horner, Leonard Lindstrom, Bill McRae, David Kirkaldy, Gabriel Munson, Gordon Hamilton, Donna Ottenbright, Chuck Place, Emil Froese, George Chinn, Len Bruggeman and Les Bryant.

Super sleuth Sally Smaha recorded all of the marked graves, which consisted of one quarter of the almost 1200 actual burial sites.

In 2003, another group of volunteers, "Friends of the Cemetery" under the leadership of Yvonne Moen, spent many hours and restored the neglected cemetery. A great job was done by these dedicated volunteers. They were back again in the spring of 2004 and have made major improvements to the cemetery. Volunteers as follows: Norma Morrison, Paulette McCulloch, Bev Bujtas, Julia Little, Irene Horner, Chuck Place, Bill Little, Leonard Lindstrom, Bill McRae, Bud Kirkaldy, David Kirkaldy, Gabriel Munson, Gordon Hamilton, Tom Harris, Donna Ottenbright, Les Bryant.

Since 2004, the Terrace Regional Historical Society members have been collecting the history of all the people that have been buried at the Kitsumgallum Cemetery. Once this has been completed, we hope to be able to publish a book with this information.

Thank you to the City of Terrace that has worked with these volunteers and has provided much appreciated benches for visitors to rest. Most importantly, a huge thanks goes out to Terrace Elks Club for their generous donation of $843.00 to cover the cost of the information board. A thank you also to Julius and Mona Mandur for blocks of yellow cedar to make markers. And thank you to the students of Parkside Alternate School and teacher, Joe Murphy, for the construction of the beautiful information board. Lastly, thank you to Mamie Kerby, president of the Terrace Regional Historical Society, and the volunteer members, for their research and putting together the history on the information board.

There are a total of 1179 souls buried there, (bodies and cremains) and 74 reserved plots.

Kitsumgallum Cemetery, Terrace, B.C.
(The original Terrace Pioneer Graveyard)

In 1905, the government opened up the Skeena Valley to homesteaders. Samuel Weeks, who came into the valley with Henry Frank, was one of the first pre-emptors. His land was the parcel on the benchland above Eby's Landing. The nickname "Dad" was given to Weeks who was middle aged and like a father to most of the settlers who were a lot younger. He was born Samuel Charles Weeks, ca 1845.

At one point, "Dad" decided that the new settlement of Eby's Landing should have a permanent graveyard. In 1909 he donated an acre of his land for this purpose. It is known today as The Kitsumgallum Cemetery in Terrace, B.C. and is situated on the edge of the benchland with a view of the beautiful Skeena River and the former site of Eby's Landing.

In 1936 the remaining land was acquired from the Frank Brothers, Floyd and Ivan (part of the original Henry Frank Homestead) making this a total of 1.71 acres. This land was surveyed by well known surveyor Fred Nash.

In 1925 Samuel Charles Weeks decided to take a trip back to visit relatives in New Brunswick. On the return trip he became ill and was taken off the train at Calgary, where he was taken to the Calgary

General Hospital. He passed away there on November 13th 1925. He was buried in the Calgary Burnsland Cemetery, Calgary, Alberta, but we are sure he would have preferred to have been buried in his own cemetery overlooking the beautiful Skeena River.

In 1996 Kitsumgallum Cemetery was designated a heritage site.
