PANEL 2

May 4, 1996

This memorial honours all The fishermen of our Community who have lost their lives in the pursuit of their profession.

Their courage, dedication
And contribution to the development of our Community will never be Forgotten

PANEL 4

Steveston's fishermen's Memorial construction with Generous donations from City of Richmond
The B.C. 21 Fund – the Province
Of British Columbia,
Steveston Community Society
And many friends of Steveston

STEVESTON FISHERMEN'S MEMORIAL

PANEL 6

Features of this memorial
Are a fishing net mending Needle (courtesy of Ross Anderson – Raider Aluminum) which represents a common tool used throughout the fishing industry, and a compass rose (donated in memory of Sidney C. McKay) which represents one of the main instruments used for navigation

Spawning cycle

These spring days grow longer Until the dark comes closing What tides disclose they again conceal

We're out to fish until – again-It's time to go ashore Because the geese go by

I'll be here with you Till it's time to be alone; the way out
The way back, and all ways this one
