TAPPEN CEMETERY, TAPPEN, BRITISH COLUMBIA

Tappen is located on Highway 1 a few miles west of Salmon Arm. To reach Tappen Cemetery from the Tappen store and gas station, go towards Salmon Arm on Highway 1, cross the bridge/overpass and drive about 1.5 km (~1 mile), turn right on to Old Tappen Road (paved), then left at the first intersection onto Cemetery road.

Tappen Cemetery is located on Cemetery Road at:

GPS reading at the gate
N 50.47.073
W 119.20.589

The cemetery is approximately one acre. It was originally created by the Women's Auxiliary from Carlin Hall. A bench and a map sign were added 2005/2006. A list of the interred is now posted on the board in the center of the cemetery where two benches are located.

Many markers have been replaced in the last year or two. Unreadable concrete markers have been replaced with new versions of the same.

This cemetery was recorded in 1975 by Mrs. Doreen Chaddock of Revelstoke, BC. This digital recording was done in October 2006 by Lynda W. Cunningham.

The photographs are in alphabetical order.
